RUNNING SHOES AND RENTED CLUBS DIDN'T STOP THIS WINNER! $100,000 WINNER

Mississauga, Ontario, Canada – Wearing running shoes and playing with rented clubs, David Poley with Vale Business Products, managed to win himself $100,000 courtesy

The tournament, which took place at The Club at Bond Head, gives companies such as Ingram Micro, and their industry suppliers, an opportunity to network with, recognize, and reward their product's resellers.

Mike Gazdic, Vice President of Vendor Management at Ingram Micro Canada notes, "It's a story that you don't forget because this hole in one created an atmosphere of incredible excitement. Everyone stayed for the festivities after. Symantec also told us they have first dibs on sponsoring the hole again next year."

As for Poley, in addition to, "paying off some bills, doing some renovations and

According to Jennifer Villers, Vendor Marketing Specialist with Symantec Canada, who was at the green when Poley made the prize-winning shot, "He was shocked. I think it took him a few minutes to realize what was going on. Then, he started shaking a bit."

According to Poley, "It was as if I was having an out of body experience. I kept thinking, well that could not have just happened." But happen it did, when Poley, using a 9-iron, aced the 150- yard 11th hole.

putting the rest aside in investments," the $100,000 winner has since purchased a new set of clubs.

"Hey, if it can happen to me, it can happen to anybody," stated Poley.

SHOOTOUT HAS THREE WINNERS

$20,000 PAR THREE TRIPLE PLAY

Nisswa, Minn. – Think it would be thrilling to have a $5,000 or $10,000 hole in one winner at your tournament? How about having three? That's exactly what happened during the Lakes Area Par 3 Championship which took place at The Pines at Grand View Lodge.

According to Jack Wawro, the tournament started out on a winning note and the winners kept coming all day long: while achieving his fourth lifetime hole in one, Scott Lindgren of Grand Forks won $5,000 on the 146-yard 9th hole and John Grudnowski of Minneapolis won $5,000 after making his third lifetime hole in one on the 135-yard 7th hole. But, the big winner of the day was Paul Sandelin, who with his very first hole in one, aced the 163-yard 8th hole, taking home $10,000. Overall the tournament featured $170,000 in prizes ranging from $5,000 cash to a $25,000 boat, all of which were insured by Hole In One International.

"Along with the quicker pace of play, there is a thrill of making a hole in one and winning a big prize on every hole," explains Wawro. "The event went very well," noted Wawro, "Hole in One International was great to work with and we're already looking forward to doing it again."

The 82 person tournament raised a total of $7,000 for two charities, Newspapers and Education and the Lakes Area Food Shelf.

CONTEST HELPS RAISE $44,000

$10,000 CONTEST WINNER GIVES IT ALL BACK

Greensboro, N.C. – The Children's Home Society of North Carolina raised over $44,000 at this year's Building Homes – Building Families Charity Classic at Eagle Point Golf Course in Wilmington, thanks in part to a very generous putting contest winner and Hole In One International.

Gary Michalove, Director of Special Events for the Children's Home Society and event organizer explains, "I've been running golf events for years and this is the second time I've seen a winner. Both times Hole In One International paid out, and both times, the winners have chosen to donate their prizes back to the organization."

Tyne Triumphant...

Tournament participant Steve Tyne and four other players were selected via raffle to participate in a putting contest featuring a $10,000 grand prize. The third participant, Tyne, holed the 60-foot putt winning the prize. However, rather than keeping the $10,000 he generously donated it all back to the Children's Home Society.

According to Michalove, Tyne's generosity wasn't the only thing special about his putt, "Not only was Steve using a borrowed putter, but the greens were really fast – the Stimpmeter reading was 13!"

50-FOOT PUTT LEADS TO $5,000 PRIZE

ANIMAL SHELTER RAISES $50,000

Newton, N.C. – Steve Vacendak recently won $5,000, paid for by Hole in One International, after holing a 50-foot putt at the Sixth Annual Humane Society of Catawba County's No-Kill Shelter Celebrity Golf Classic at Rock Barn Golf and Spa. Vacendak got the chance to make the prize-winning putt, sponsored by Lee Industries, after he and two other contestant's names were selected from all golfer's who had purchased mulligan packages. The three contestants each got a single attempt to make the 50-foot putt on the practice putting green, immediately following the tournament. However, it was Vacendak who had the touch.

Why not take a tip from the Oklahoma Blazers who, in conjunction with U.S. Cellular, gave three hockey fans the chance to win $1,000,000, paid for by Odds On Promotions, playing Million $ Deal Poker.

In this poker themed promotion, we'll send you 20 oversized cards, 10 through Ace - inside our Lucky Envelopes. Your contestant selects five envelopes to build their hand. If they draw a Straight, Four of a Kind or a Royal Flush, they win the prize, and Odds On antes up, for up to $1,000,000. Secondary self-sponsored prizes can be awarded for pairs and any other combination.

The Blazers opted to run their contest "World Series of Poker" style laying out the envelopes on a donated casino game table at the arena, with an "overhead camera" to project the results on the video scoreboard. ANIMAL SHELTER

According to Bud Lofland, tournament director and passionate shelter volunteer, "The golf event is extremely important. The shelter is solely dependent on fundraising. We receive no government funds. And this golf tournament is the shelter's number one fundraiser. This year's tournament raised over $50,000. And now that we've just moved into a new shelter with heat, the golf tournament is even more important."
